

Marilyn Walker, Fine Art

Marilyn was born in Highland Park, Michigan a suburb of Detroit. At age eleven, her parents were transferred to New Jersey, and from there she has lived in Virginia, upper New York state and Texas.

Marilyn began painting as a child when her mother enrolled her in art lessons in Michigan. She took oil painting lessons creating simple still life pictures on linen. She continued private art lessons throughout Jr High School, in Virginia. In her Senior year of High School in N.Y., she continued to study art. She was Editor of the Annual Yearbook, designing both front and back covers, and created various other academic artwork.

Marilyn majored in Fine Art and Interior Design at the University of Houston. She attended classes under Bob Wygant and Olden Budwine, among others. After attending the U of H, she raised a family, while working in CAD drafting/design related employment.

In 2010, she has resumed her first passion, oil painting and artwork. She enjoys doing oil paintings of still lifes, animals and landscapes.

Marilyn resides in Bellville, Tx with her husband, and their aristocrat Cat. Marilyn became a member of the Brenham Fine Arts League in 2011, and participates in art classes, displaying artwork, volunteer work, fund raising, and art competitions.

Facebook webpage: https://business.facebook.com/pg/Marilyn-Walker-Fine-Art-649699388830742/photos/?ref=page\_internal#